

CANADA vs. USA POSTGAME REPORT 2019-02-17

5 on 5 Data

Metric	CAN	USA
Goals	1	0
Shots	35	32
Shots on Net	15	18
% Shots Rebound	6	3.57
Percent Slot Shots	0.23	0.16
Slot Passes	7	2
Penalties Taken	3	3
Puck Recoveries	161	188
Takeaways	29	23
Faceoff Wins	11	20
Zone Entries	49	57
Passing Rate	0.68	0.72

At 5 on 5, Canada scored 1 goal and the U.S. was unable to convert. While Canada had more shot attempts, the U.S. hit the net at a higher rate than Canada. Canada had a higher percentage of shots from the slot, and they had 7 passes to the slot relative to the U.S.'s 2.

Defensively, the U.S. had a higher volume of puck recoveries than Canada but they had fewer takeaways. The U.S. was strong in the faceoff circle, winning 20 faceoffs to Canada's 10. The U.S. also had more zone entries than Canada, showing they had more opportunities entering Canada's defensive zone. Canada had a lower passing success rate than the U.S.

When looking at events directly preceding goals, Canada had a higher rebound rate than the U.S., with 6% of their shots being rebounds relative to the U.S.'s 3.6% of shots being rebounds.

Team	Goals	PP goals	Opportunities	Success Rate	Shots per opportunity	Recoveries per opportunity
CAN	2	1	5	0.2	2	1.20
USA	0	0	6	0.0	4	2.17

Canada scored one of their two total goals while on the powerplay, where they went 1/5 with a success rate of 20%. They scored despite having a lower shot volume, with an average of just two shots per opportunity. They did a good job maintaining possession in the offensive zone, only having to recover the puck in their defensive zone 1.20 times per powerplay on average. The U.S. was unable to score on their 6 powerplay opportunities. They did a good job generating shots, with an average of 4 shots per opportunity. They did have to recover the puck in their defensive zone more often.

Player	Goals	Passes	Puck Recoveries	Zone Entries	Passing Accuracy
Turnbull	1	13	10	3	0.76
Jenner	1	10	8	5	0.71
Fortino	0	28	23	0	0.74
Lacquette	0	27	22	0	0.73
Ambrose	0	26	26	1	0.81

Turnbull and Jenner scored for team Canada. Turnbull was active with 13 passes and 10 puck recoveries, and Jenner led the way in zone entries with 5. Fortino and Ambrose were defensively active, both with more puck recoveries.

Player	Goals	Passes	Puck Recoveries	Zone Entries	Passing Accuracy
Bellamy	0	43	26	1	0.77
Stecklein	0	27	19	0	0.82
Pfalzer	0	25	20	0	0.78
Hannah Brandt	0	24	18	1	0.92
Brianna Decker	0	24	9	3	0.86

For the U.S., Bellamy was active with both more passes and puck recoveries. Hannah Brandt was very accurate in her passes.